WHEN INSULTS HAD CLASS

Exchange between Churchill and Lady Astor:

She said, “If you were my husband I’d give you poison.”

He said, “If you were my wife, I’d drink it.”

A member of Parliament to Disraeli:

“Sir, you will either die on the gallows or of some unspeakable disease.”

“That depends, Sir,” said Disraeli, “whether I embrace your policies or your mistress.”

10 GOOD REASONS TO BE A VOLUNTEER

1. Volunteers don't get paid, not because they're worthless, but because they're priceless.
2. Volunteers do not necessarily have the time; they just make the time.
3. Something that will always puzzle you all your life is why, when you are in special need of help, the good deed is usually done by somebody on whom you have no claim
4. Volunteers act as if what they do makes a difference. It does.
5. Unless someone like you cares a whole awful lot, nothing is going to get better.
6. Being good is commendable, but only when it is combined with doing good is it useful.
7. Nobody can do everything, but everyone can do something.
8. We make a living by what we earn, but we make a life by what we give.
9. We are not here to see through each other, but to see each other through.
10. You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.

In response to the observation that volunteers are too often seen as amateurs: "Just remember: Noah's Ark was built by amateurs. The Titanic was built by professionals."
